Statement of intent

The policy is underpinned by sections 42A and 45A of the Education Act 1997 and has regard to the DfE's, 2018 statutory guidance for governing bodies, leaders and school staff.

The main aims of careers provision at Hurworth House is to help all students fulfill their potential and experience success through an educational environment, which responds to individual need and stimulates and challenges each and every student. The processes of informing, advising and guiding students is accorded a high priority and seen as crucial in preparing students to make decisions regarding the opportunities and challenges of adult and working life.

In the delivery of Careers Education and Guidance, all learners are of equal worth. It is important to encourage and motivate learners from all backgrounds, whatever their social, economic and cultural differences, to attain their place in society. Hurworth House will deliver information, advice and guidance that actively challenges stereotypes and raises aspirations.

Local and National Context

Hurworth House School is fully committed to ensuring all statutory duties are fulfilled with regards to CEIAG, ensuring all registered students are provided with independent and impartial careers guidance.

Hurworth House will endeavor to meet its commitments under:

- 2011 Education Act

Key roles and responsibilities

The Governing Body has overall responsibility for the implementation of the Careers Policy. All members of the School Senior Leadership Team and School Governance Team play an active role in ensuring CEIAG is embedded throughout the curriculum.

Richard Juillerat – Operations Manager/Careers Lead

Claire Blackett – Head Teacher

Victoria Skilbeck – Business Manager

Danielle Mullen – Deputy Head (maternity)

Lucy Harrison (interim) – Deputy Head Teacher

Richard Juillerat– Assistant Head Teacher

Marie Cook – Assistant Head Teacher(interim)

As Head Teacher Claire Blackett champions the delivery of CEIAG throughout the School. Careers Lead Richard Juillerat/ Marie Cook are responsible for day to day implementation and management.

Objectives

To raise aspirations and achievement throughout Hurworth House School

Hurworth House will do this by working with all students in the School from year 5 to year 13. CEIAG will be embedded within the School curriculum and ethos. All staff within the School will take an active role in delivery. All young people will have access to high quality independent advice delivered by a level 6 qualified Careers Advisor. All young people will gain experience of workplaces through employer encounters and work experience. CEIAG activities will be recorded and evaluated and young people will take ownership over this. Hurworth House School ensure young people have access to a comprehensive Career Library where they can access up to date information.

To challenge stereotypes and promote equality of opportunity.

Hurworth House School will do this by working with every young person to identify career and employment paths that are tailored to meet individual needs. We will focus on what an individual can do rather than any limitations. Hurworth House will work with a range of employers throughout industry sectors and impress upon all partners the benefits of working with and employing young people with SEND.

To encourage a thirst for further learning

Hurworth House will do this by working closely with Further Education, Sixth Form, Higher Education and Training Providers. All young people will engage in visits, taster sessions and advisory sessions at a range of institutions. Interactions will take place at an appropriate time in a young person's educational journey and will take into account an individual's diagnosis and any sensory needs. This will enable young people to make fully informed decisions about their pathways when they progress from Hurworth House.

To encourage a desire for paid employment

Hurworth House will do this by working with employees throughout industry sectors. Young people will learn about the labour market, salaries for different jobs and the skills and qualifications needed to gain employment in their identified areas of interest. Hurworth House School will prepare young people for the world of work by delivering employability skills including interview techniques, CV building, independent travel training and money management skills. All young people will have access to work experience at an appropriate time in their education journey.

To foster a sense of community and altruism

Hurworth House will do this by young people volunteering to work with the local community on projects to improve the local environment and the wellbeing of community residents. Hurworth House will work with charities including Dogs Trust, MIND and Barnados to build character in young people and instill in them the benefits of being a valued member of society.

To meet the needs of every student

CEIAG delivery in Hurworth House School will be differentiated and tailored to an individual's needs. A young person's diagnosis, past experiences, risk assessment, sensory needs and behavior support plan will all be considered when CEIAG is being delivered in or out of Hurworth House School. All young people will be encouraged to make ambitious yet realistic choices about their future pathways. Hurworth House School expects and supports every young person to fulfil their potential.

Student Entitlement

All Students studying at Hurworth House will be assisted to:

- Explore and understand likes, dislikes, skills and qualities and how these can transfer to a career pathway.
- Find out about different courses available upon progression from Hurworth House and what qualifications are needed to access these courses.
- Explore alternative courses and pathways if entry requirements are not met for chosen course.
- Develop skills needed for working life.
- Record CEIAG activities
- Access high quality information, advice and guidance from a range of sources.
- Make aspirational choices about career pathways.
- Develop employability skills including CV building and interview techniques.
- Access visits and taster sessions at a range of education and training providers.

All CEIAG is underpinned by the following values:

- Impartiality
- Confidentiality
- Ownership by the student
- Equality of opportunity
- Transparency
- Accessibility

GDPR requirements are adhered to at all times.

Staffing and curriculum

All Hurworth House staff contribute to CEIAG programme through their roles. CEIAG is embedded into curriculum and is monitored through lesson observations and work scrutiny.

CEIAG is appropriately resourced in all curriculum areas and delivery is always impartial. All staff are aware of Gatsby Benchmarks and that CEIAG requires a whole School focus in order to be successful.

Hurworth House works in partnership with Young Enterprise to deliver accredited courses that will prepare young people for the world or work.

Staff development

Senior leadership team and Career Lead(s) are responsible for the dissemination of key information and updates with regards to CEIAG. External training will be sourced when necessary. Resources are available to staff upon request.
